Foreword

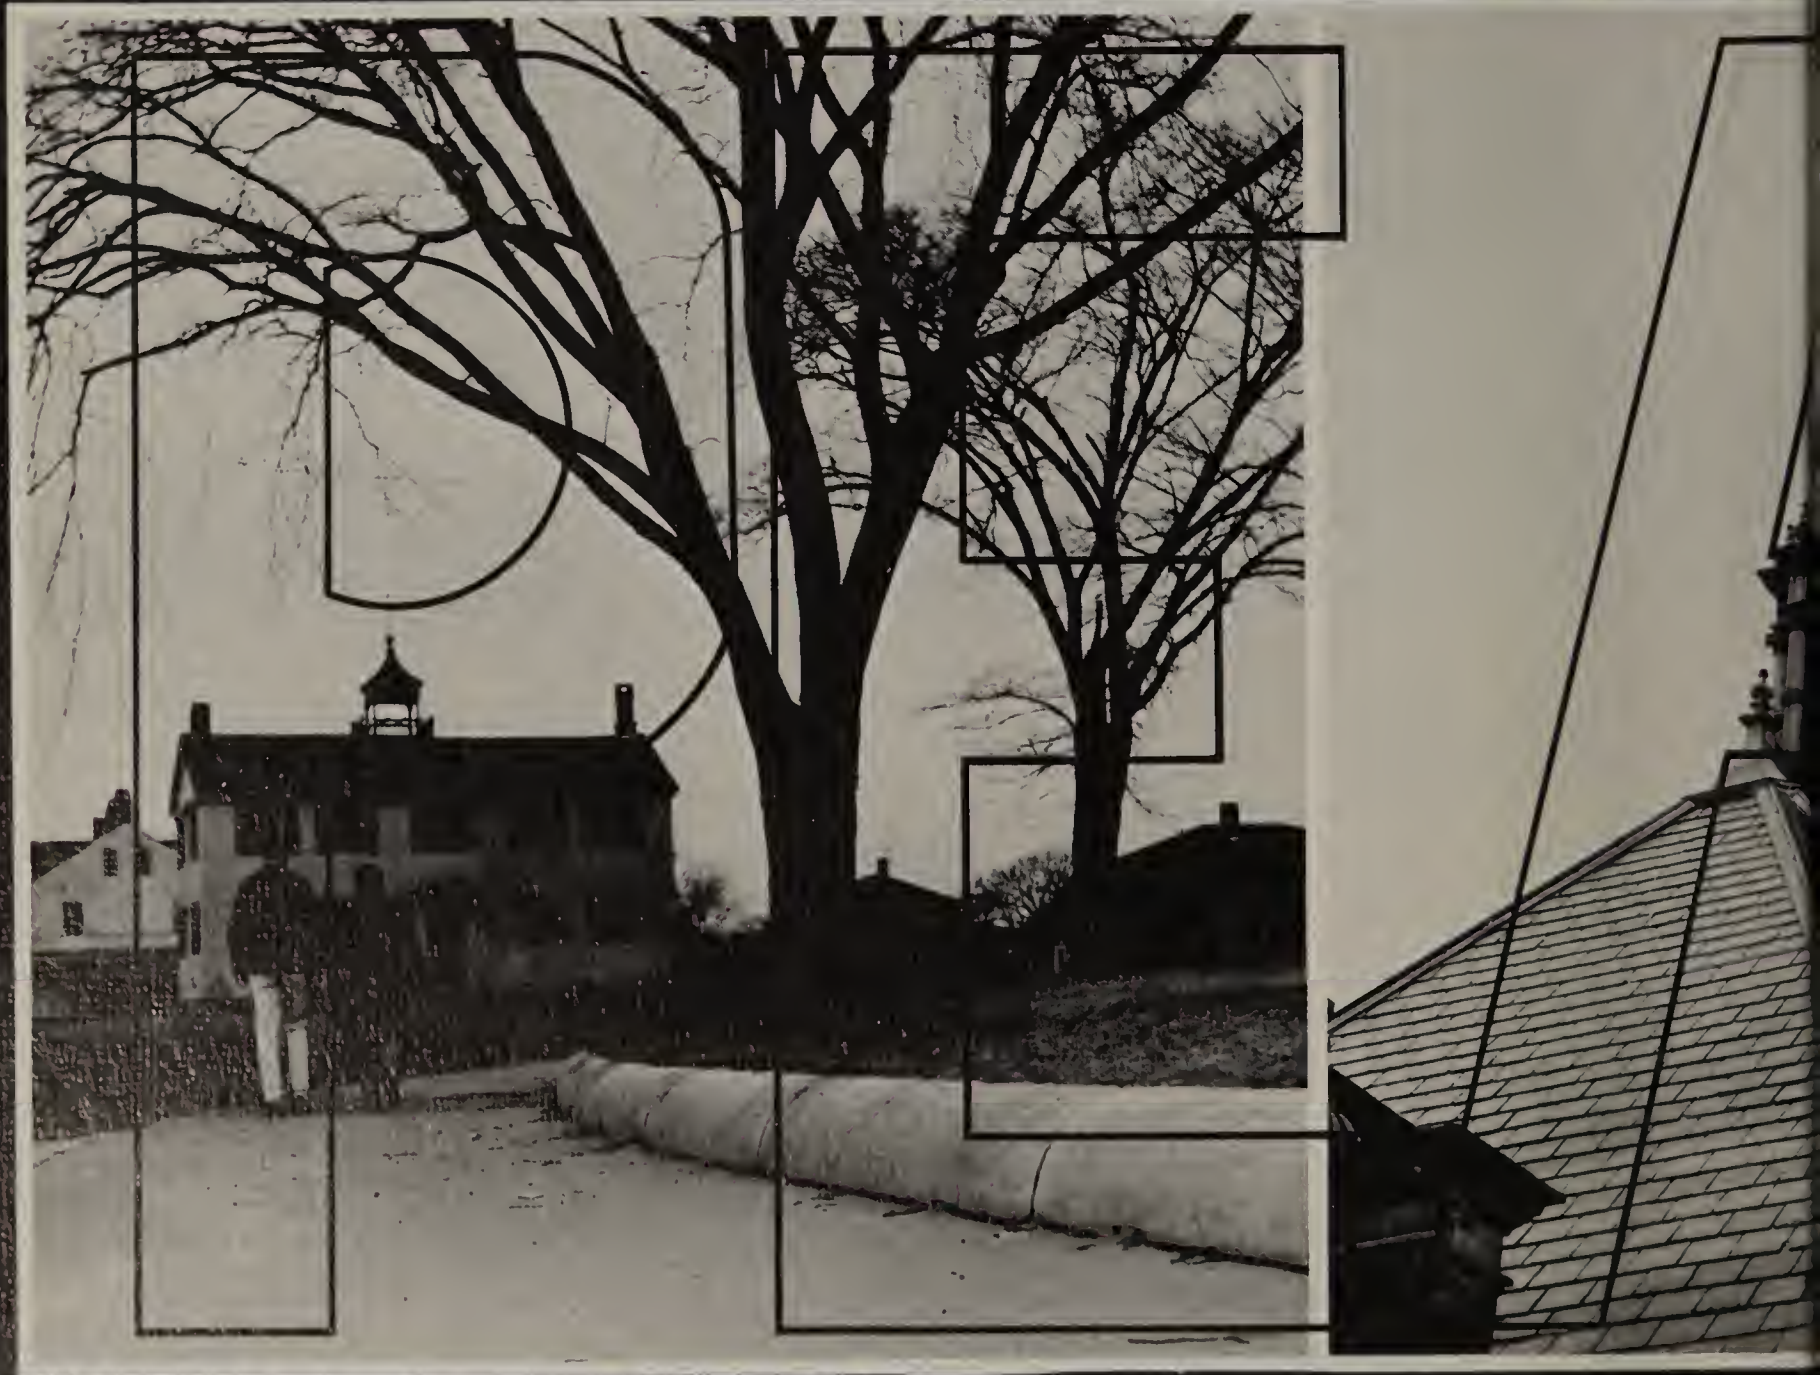

Ours is a time of rapid change; a time of social and political upheaval. For the past three years, as students of Fairhaven High School, we have witnessed the demonstrations and riots which have taken place on the streets of American cities. We have formulated opinions concerning these incidents and the legislative action pertaining to social problems. We have learned more of the world around us; of our friends and neighbors; of ourselves. These three years have afforded us the opportunity for each of us to plant the seeds of his future; to build a foundation of life. It has been a time of security, a time of laughter, a time of dancing, a time, which, for us, is never to come again, a time which we must now leave, a time which others must fill. We must now look to the challenges which face us and to the time for which each one of us must strive . . . the time of peace.

To Everything

To everything, turn, turn, turn;
There is a season, turn, turn, turn;
And a time to every purpose under heaven.

A time to be born, a time to die;
A time to plant, a time to reap;
A time to kill, a time to heal;
A time to laugh, a time to weep.

A time to build up, a time to break down;
A time to dance, a time to mourn;
A time to cast away stones,
A time to gather stones together.

There Is a Season

A time of love, a time of hate;
A time of war, a time of peace;
A time when you may embrace,
A time to refrain from embracing.

A time to gain, a time to lose;
A time to rend, a time to sew;
A time to love, a time to hate;
A time for peace, I swear it's not too late.

To everything, turn, turn, turn;
There is a season, turn turn, turn;
And a time to every purpose under heaven.

Words: Book of Ecclesiastes
Adaption by Pete Seeger

It is with deep appreciation that we dedicate this forty-third volume of THE HUTTLESTONIAN to Mrs. Mabel H. Knipe. Mrs. Knipe is a dedicated and tireless person, one who understands many of the attitudes and problems of young people. For many years, in fact, so many that she was a teacher of many of our parents, she has aided students in Fairhaven to complete their education and has inspired them to go on to fuller and more successful lives.

Although we do not by any means agree with all of Mrs. Knipe's ideas, we do respect her viewpoints, and we salute her integrity and determination to do her part to make the world a better place in which to live. In addition to her duties as head of the English department, her untiring efforts on behalf of a variety of projects, the school newspaper and the Biafran aid collection taken up last Christmas, have earned her gratitude of students and faculty alike. The warmth of her personality and the strength of her character have been driving forces at Fairhaven High School for many years. It is for all these reasons and with an eye also on her decades of thankless but untiring service to the young people of our town that we dedicate this, our yearbook, to Mrs. Mabel H. Knipe.

The Principal's Address

As educators we have been entrusted the responsibility of continuously improving the quality and quantity of education at all levels. To be successful the educator must turn to the government and the community for their cooperation. The power of any one body or agency would place restrictions on the development of free people in a democracy.

It is appropriate that the Senior Class select the song, "Turn, Turn, Turn," based on the chapter of Ecclesiastes in the Bible, as their theme for the complex problems which the graduate faces today. Vietnam, technological innovations, the explosion of knowledge and the changing social relationships require that every student, too, must turn, turn, turn, in a cooperative way if a general condition of mutual trust and understanding is to be achieved.

The Spray, the newspaper at FHS, is published quarterly by a staff of dedicated members. This year the Spray sponsored the Biafran collection and aided in supporting the production of Macbeth by the National Shakespeare Company.

Spray Staff

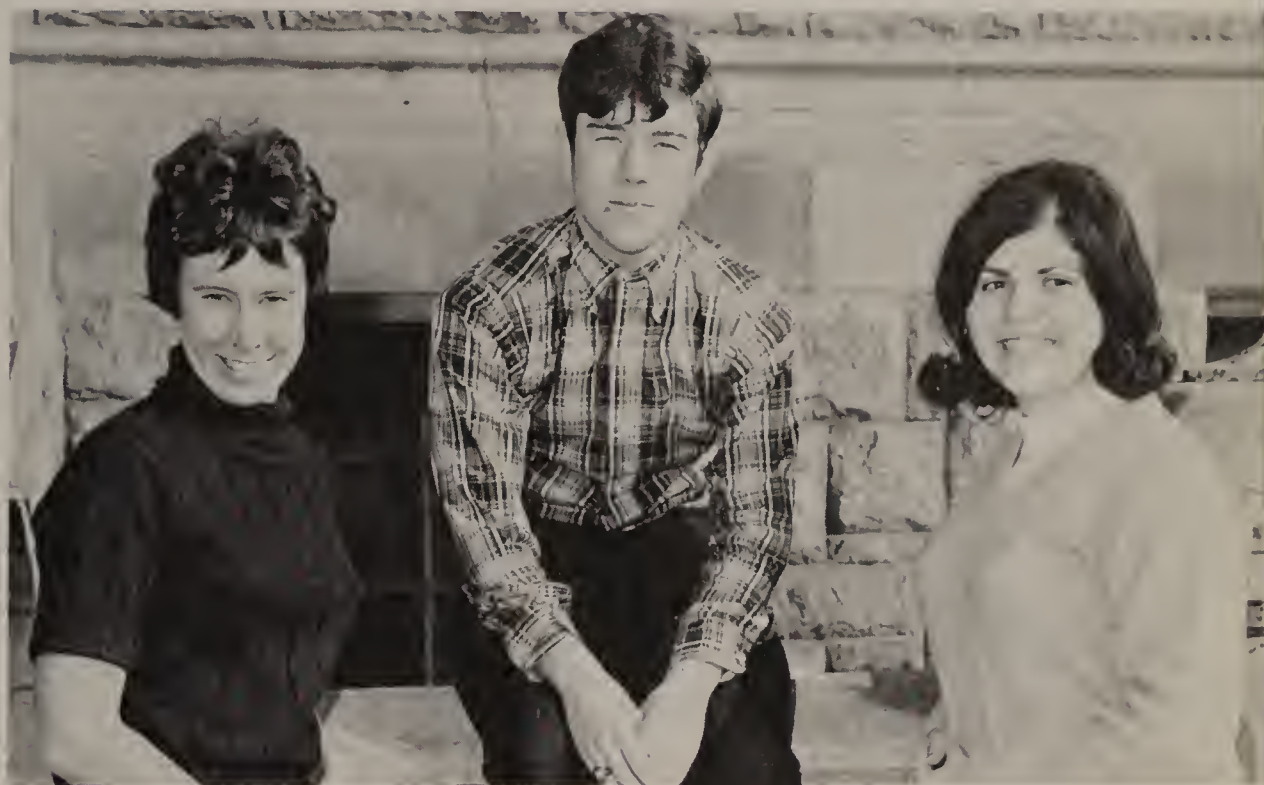

Over-worked department heads rebel.

1969 Hutt Staff

Those who have dedicated long hours to produce the 1969 Huttles-tonian know that composing a year-book is a laborious yet rewarding task. The editors sponsored the successful "Triple C" Dance during December in an effort to increase the school's social functions.

Student Council

The Student Council, the governing body at FHS, has had a busy and profitable year. Members revised the dress code and student handbook and took charge of class election procedures. During Thanksgiving the Student Council collected enough money to provide five families with complete dinners. Officers are Barry Fisher, President, James Townley, Vice-President and Jane Tucker, Secretary-Treasurer.

Traffic Squad

Members of the school's police force aid in keeping corridor traffic free of congestion. Head monitors are Barry Fisher, Cheryl Borowicz, Jimmy Hart and Pat Girard.

Language: The Bridge of Friendship

French Club

The French club seeks to give each student the opportunity to learn more about French culture and to permit each member to take part in activities related to French custom. French Club members have had a busy and culturally productive series of educational experiences through the French Hootenanny, a Mardi-Gras celebration, the exchange of tapes with an international "Tape Pal" and the production of a French movie with narration. Officers are John Medeiros, President; Joanne Robitaille, Vice-President; Peter Harriman, Secretary; and Shirley Carreiro, Treasurer.

The chief aims of the AFS Club are to assume responsibility for the welfare of the foreign student in the school, to stimulate interest in the Americans Abroad programs, and to cooperate with the local AFS Chapter in stimulating better relations toward peace. Members plan activities to raise money for American students who wish to go abroad. Officers are Deborah Morris, President; Henry Danielli, Vice-President; Shelly Lauzon, Secretary; and Claudia Silva, Treasurer.

Sewing

Sewing Club provides an opportunity for girls to work on class clothing projects or clothing brought from home. This year the group made drapes for the clothing room and the women's faculty room. A style show is planned for the spring. Club officers are: Jane Skinner, President; Cynthia Dutra, Vice-President; Janet Bernier, Secretary; and Joan Skinner, Treasurer.

Members of the Cake Decorating Club learn the creative art of decorating pastries. Cake Decorating is one of the fine pleasures which broadens the culinary abilities of a student. Secretary is Judy Ruest and Treasurer is Debbie Allen.

Members of the knitting club are pictured below with creative hats and sweaters which they have made during their activity.

Audio-Visual Aids

The Audio-Visual Department is primarily a service organization which is responsible for the delivery and operation of projectors, phonographs, and tape recorders throughout the building. Led by Joseph Simpkin, members categorize incoming filmstrips and catalogues.

Sports Theory

This newly-formed club seeks to broaden the general sports knowledge and interest of its members by discussing theory, concepts, training technique and team strategy. Officers are Bette Cunha, Donald Audette, James Mitcheson, and Paul Mello.

Typing Club

Students improve their typing skill during the typing lab period which is devoted to extra practice, report typing for classes, individual help, and additional timed writings for speed and accuracy.

Slide Rule Club

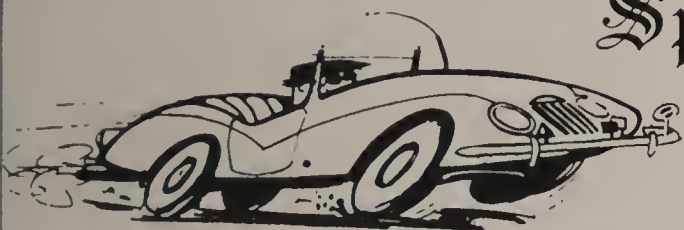

Members of the slide rule club improve their skill by practicing with large-scale slide rules.

Key Club

The Key Club is a service organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. This year the organization, under the leadership of Donnie Joseph, the president, sold stationery and Christmas trees. Other officers are: Milton Pease, Vice-President; David Francis, Secretary; and John Fernandes, Treasurer.

Sports Car Club

Members of the Sports Car Club are interested in the various types of cars driven by commuters and professionals.

Future Teachers

Future Teachers' Club is an organization designed for those who are seriously considering becoming teachers. Its members are acquainted with some of the questions teachers encounter daily when they observe and teach classes in Fairhaven schools, and when they help pre-primary children at the Tripp School. The candy and cake sales together with dues enable the club to raise money for a scholarship which is given to a senior at graduation. Officers are: Nancy Powers, President; Debbie Chasse, Vice-President; Carol Savage, Secretary; and Anne Macomber, Treasurer.

Future Nurses

To aid girls in choosing a desired school for nursing or other medical work, The Future Nurses Club discusses various nursing, laboratory, and X-ray technician schools and plans to visit some of these schools. This year, for the first time the group took a short course in First Aid. Officers of the club are: Barbara Jasinski, President; Charlotte Bergeron, Vice-President; Michelle Ouimet, Secretary; Kathryn Albino, Treasurer.

Drama Club

The Drama Club performed a one-act play entitled "Kiss Me Quick, I'm Double Parked" for an assembly program and three one-act plays for an evening performance. The officers Pat Girard, Jane Howland, Carol Santos, and Jane Tucker assisted with the production of Macbeth by the National Shakespeare Company.

Library Club

The members of the Library Club not only aid Mrs. Boyce in cataloging new books, but they learn steps toward better research.

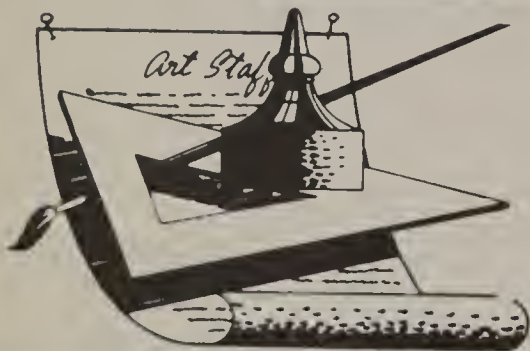

Navigation Club

The Navigation Club studies coastal piloting, the Rules of the Road, Electronic Navigation, Marine Engines, and Basic Seamanship. Since this activity is similar to a classroom course, homework assignments are completed each week.

Chess Club

Members of the Chess Club improve their strategy in a shrewd game of chess.

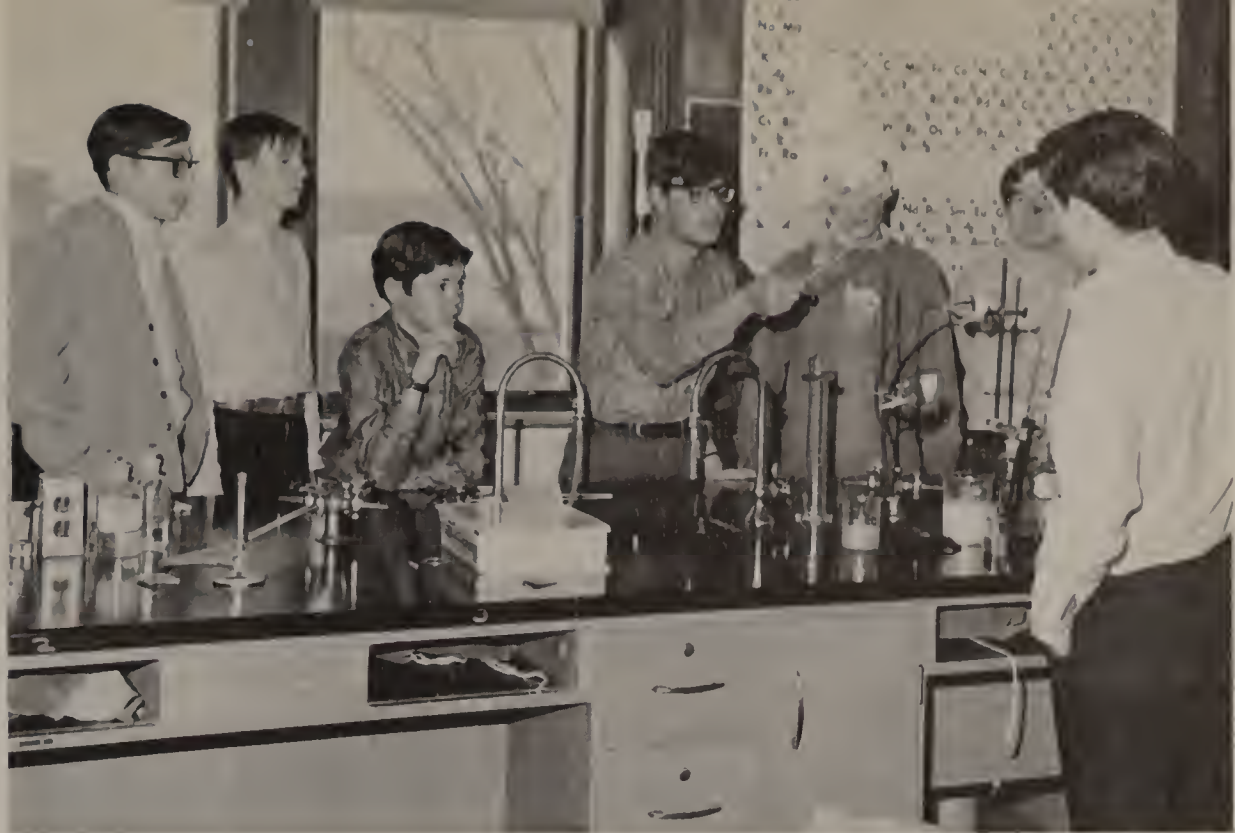

Art Club

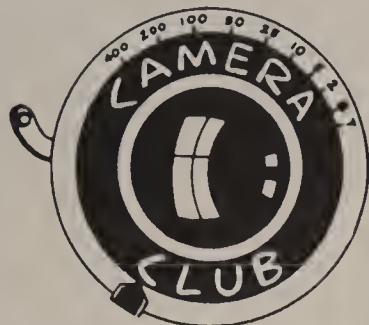

The Art Club enables its members to improve their artistic and imaginative abilities.

Science Club

Members of the Science Club explore the field of chemistry and perform many strange and interesting experiments.

Camera Club

The Camera Club affords an opportunity for its members to improve their skills in photography and enables them to study various types of cameras and the art of developing.

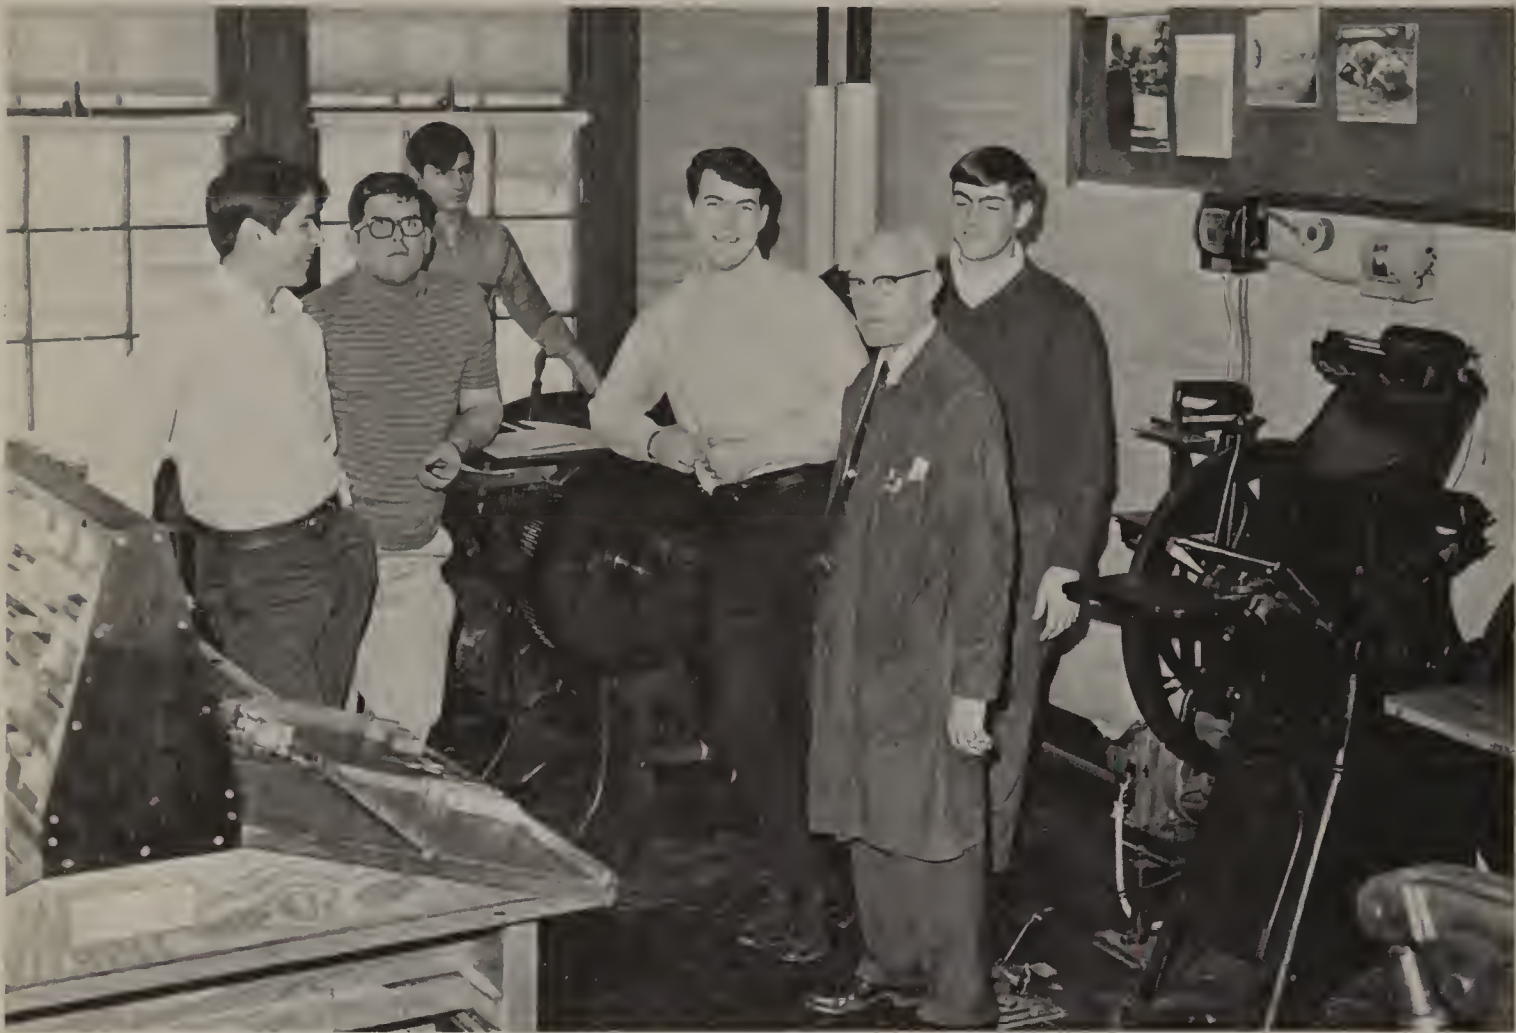

Bookkeeping Club

The members of this all girl club improve their secretarial skill.

Printing Club

Members of the Printing Club improve skills in printing and aid in publishing the "Spray."

Wood Shop

Wood Shop enables its members to work on projects which can not be finished in class time.

Ping Pong Club

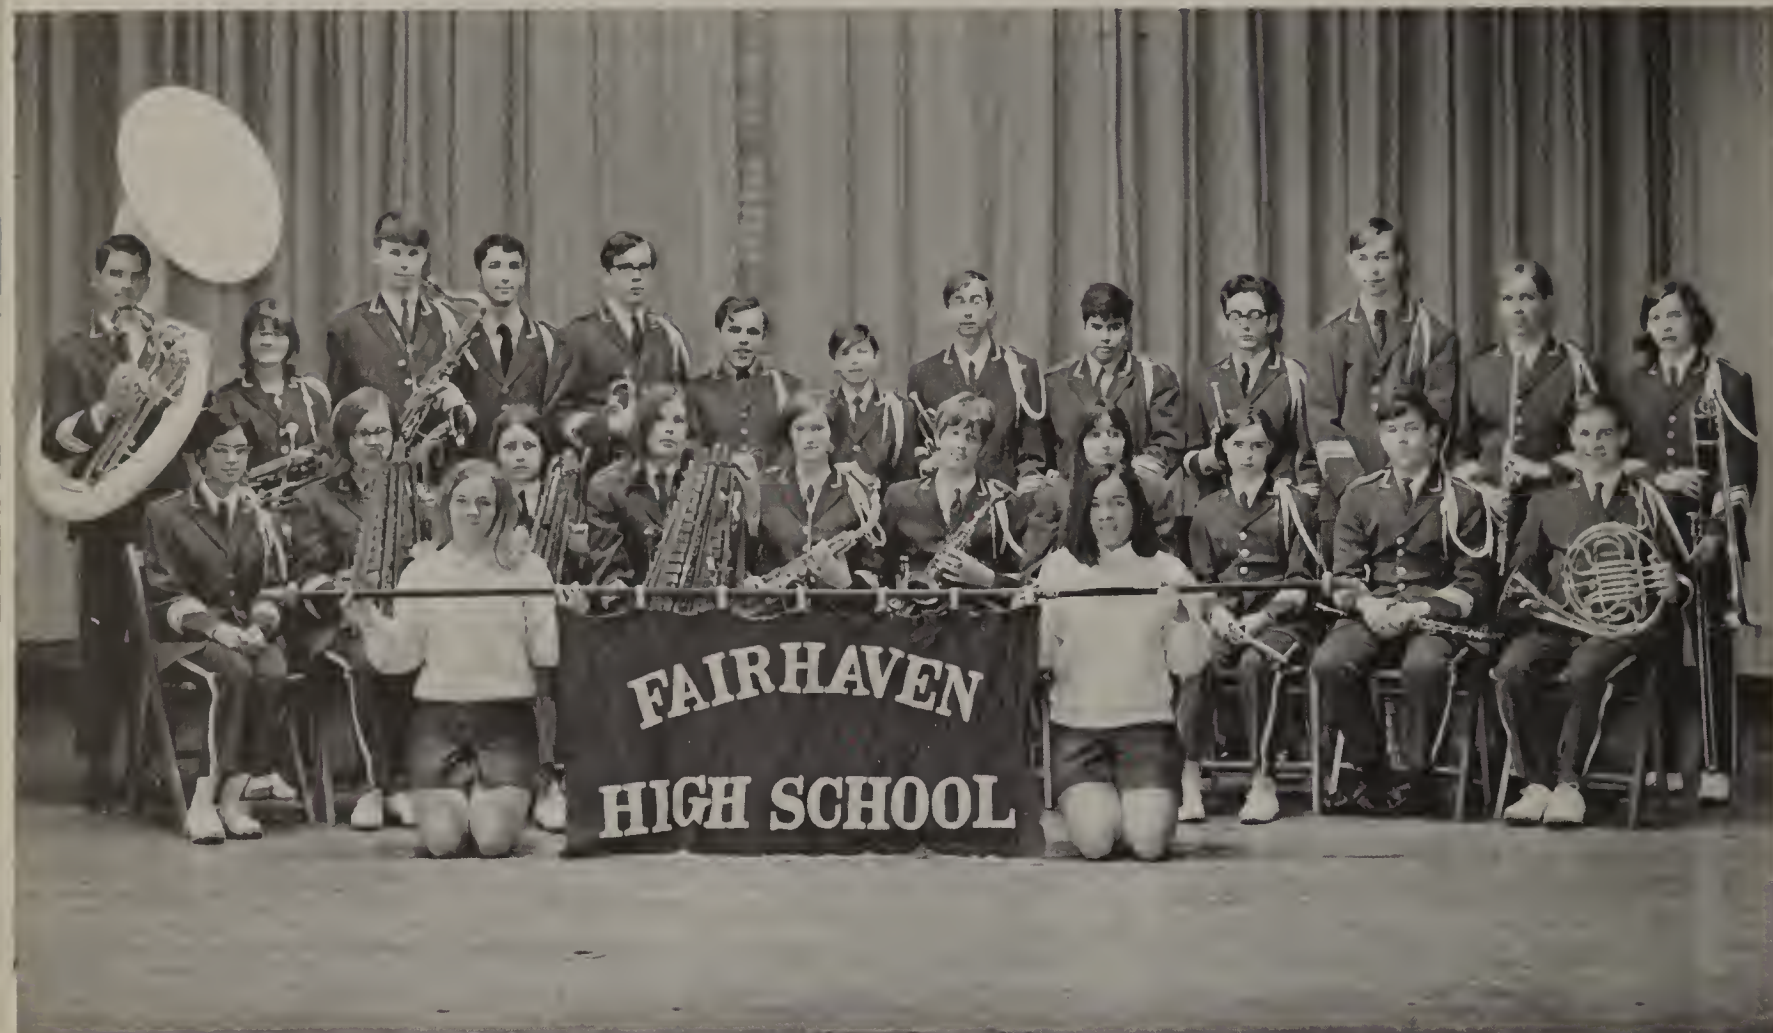

The purpose of this club is to teach students the basic skills and rules of ping pong through participation in the sport. Members achieve practice as well as relaxation and enjoyment from the single and double tournaments in which they participate.

Karate Club

Karate members gain a basic understanding of the history of Karate and the various cultures through which it was transmitted. The activity provides education in elementary awareness and utilizes the gym for education on the physical level.

The Echoes

Band

The Marching Band plays at football games during the fall. Together with the concert band, the Marching Band plays at the Annual Pops Concert.

Pep Squad

The purposes of the Pep Squad are to march with the marching band at football games, to support the cheerleaders at all football and basketball games, and to enhance school spirit through making posters. Officers of the Squad are Elizabeth Tetrault, President; Deborah Morris, Vice-President; Kathy Bouley, Secretary; and Kathy Smith, Treasurer.

Cheerleaders

Majorettes

Adding sparkle and color to the band are our six snappy majorettes. Seeing them march with the band during football season, one is assured of the long hours of practice the majorettes must endure. Below are from left to right Linda Victorino, Marlene Livramento, Wendy Cruz, Gloria Patasini, and Sue Gardella. Beverly Martins is not pictured.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus affords pleasure for those who enjoy singing. The group has given a variety of concerts during the year; a Mass, a traditional Christmas performance, and a spring concert. Members often sing for the Music Parents' Club Meetings.

Music Appreciation

Those who enjoy listening to and discussing music and who wish to obtain a better understanding of many types of music are members of the Music Appreciation Club. The activity is governed by the desires of its members and offers a relaxed mood.

The 1968 Blue Devils, led by team captain Donald Joseph and coaches Richard Arieta, Milton Rice, and John Losert, commenced the season with two resounding victories over area teams, Voke and Wareham. The Devils found tougher opponents on the Cape; however, and finished with a respectable 4-4-1 mark.

The spirited Arietamen capped off the season with a thrilling 14-12 win over arch-rival Dartmouth. All in all, the '68 season was a rewarding and enjoyable one for the Fairhaven High Blue Devils.

For his second year at Fairhaven High School, Milt Rice led his Winter Track Team to another winning season. In all, there were 9 dual conference meets. At the Capeway Conference Championship Meet, Fairhaven gained 9 trophies, and at the Association Meet they won 5. The overall record was 5 wins and 4 losses. Many members had individual accomplishments, but the team effort was enough to give the Class of '69 another memorable season.

Underclassmen

Throughout the first weeks of September, Sophomore faces were decidedly marked with confusion. However, as we have become accustomed to schedules and teachers we have acquired new strength and responsibility which will help to enlighten our next two years at Fairhaven High School.

The class departed from the traditional sale of chocolate Easter Bunnies by holding a toothbrush project which brought $700.00 to the treasury.

We are now looking forward with mixed feelings to the year ahead, our first year as upperclassmen. We await the many exciting experiences which our junior and senior years will bring and which will help us to pave our path of life.

Members of the Hutt Staff: from left to right are: back row: Phil Mello, David Cabral, James Gidley. Front row: Jane Ryle, Rebecca Fleisch, and Phoebe Taylor. The group learned a bit about yearbook layouts and planned the Sophomore pages.

"You can say what you want Henry, but with $700.00 profit we can't complain!"

Class of 1970

As the summer ended and everyone's eyes focused on the coming year, the class of '70 entered F.H.S. with the distinguished title of upperclassmen. On the arrival of our rings, early in October, we had the first symbol of our newly acquired status, which provided a subject of conversation for weeks to come.

The annual Junior Class project, the sale of fruit cakes, was a task undertaken with enthusiasm and a few sighs, and with the assistance of our advisor, Mr. Borowiec, the sale was a great success.

Our Junior Prom, which climaxed our year, was held in May, an experience which will remain in our memories for years to come.

The Senior year draws near, but the class of '70 is prepared for its challenge and looks forward to our last year as students in Fairhaven High.

Junior Prom

The Prom Queen and the eight lovely members of her court.

Our attractive Queen, Halldis Berg.

Tom and Sue, Lady-in-Waiting.

April 26, 1968, was the night of our Junior Prom. The Larch Avenue Auditorium was transformed into a panorama of beauty and serenity which was an emphasis of the theme, "An Enchanted Evening." Tropical fish, palm trees, and net hangings lined the bamboo-printed wallpaper creating a romantic atmosphere.

Halldis Berg, who was crowned Queen of the prom by last year's queen, Linda Younger, reigned over the captivating scene with her lady-in-waiting, Susan Torres. The members of the court, Patricia Pemberton, Nancy Hayward, Susan Furtado, Wendy Cruz, Nancy Knutsen, Stephanie Allen, and Jean Wyss assembled around the beautifully decorated throne.

At eleven-thirty everyone was disappointed to see a most enjoyable evening come to a close.

Junior Day

Jeff Silva presents mantle to Tom Wojcik, Junior class president.

Shirley Carreiro receives Achievement Award.

Junior Day exercises were conducted on June 7, 1968, a wonderful spring morning. On this special day, the graduating seniors sadly departed from Fairhaven High, and the juniors happily accepted the responsibilities of a Senior class.

The program commenced with the Juniors, each wearing a traditional yellow rose, entering the auditorium to Sullivan's "Entrance March of the Peers." The silent, meditative seniors marched to Baptiste's "Entre de Procession." Patrick Cataldo, the senior soloist, sang Darion's "The Impossible Dream" while Elizabeth Dearden, a pianist, played Chopin's "Polonaise in A." The Junior soloist, Susan Furtado, played the "Tellemann Concerto" on her viola. Symbolic of the annual handing down of leadership, the Mantle Oration was delivered by Jeffrey Silva, President of the Class of 1968, and was accepted by Thomas Wojcik, President of the Class of 1969.

Mr. Stanley J. Grabiec, headmaster, presented scholastic awards to those students who displayed outstanding academic achievement during the past year. The Juniors commended were Shirley Carreiro and Patricia Newett. John Medeiros received the Harvard Club Book Award and Susan Torres, the College Club Book Award, for outstanding citizenship, leadership, and service.

The Senior Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Lannan sang Russell-Vick's "The Halls of Ivy" to finish the program. The Senior class exited solemnly to Mendelssohn's "Cornelius Festival March" and the Junior class to the "Entrance March of the Peers" to mark the conclusion of a tradition always to be remembered by the Class of 1969.

John Medeiros receives Harvard Club Book Award.

Susan Torres is presented with the College Club Book Award.

Class History

In September of 1965, we, the graduating class of 1969, began our high school career as upperclassmen at Fairhaven Junior High School. We began our activities with the election of our class officers; Thomas Wojcik, President; Donald Joseph, Vice-President; Linda Victorino, Secretary; and Susan Gardella, Treasurer. Jean Wyss, Susan Tangen, Thomas Darwin, Mark Carter, Peter Harriman, and Susan Torres were delegated members of the Executive Board. Our first class social was a successful dance which carried the theme of "Surfin' East Coast," and was held in the spring. The class also produced a One Act play entitled "The Little Man Who Wasn't There," by Earl J. Dias, which was enthusiastically received by all.

Before we realized it was over, the summer of 1966 had passed, and we prepared ourselves for the responsibilities that we were about to acquire as sophomores at Fairhaven High. Our first duty was to elect our class officers. They were: Tom Wojcik, President; Susan Torres, Vice-President; Susan Gardella, Secretary; and Peter Harriman, Treasurer. Members of the Executive Board were Tom Darwin, Susan Green, Mark Carter, Jean Wyss, and Nancy Knutsen. Our successful fund-raising project was a sale of chocolate Easter bunnies.

As our first year as upperclassmen began in the fall of 1967, we knew there was much to be done. Plans for our Prom and Junior Day had to be made, and to make the decisions, we elected Tom Wojcik, President; Susan Torres, Vice-President; Sue Gardella, Secretary; and Jean Wyss, Treasurer. Nancy Hayward, Nancy Knutsen, John Medeiros, Tom Darwin, and Peter Harriman served on the Executive Board. Not long after we returned to school, we were much pleased by the arrival of our school rings. Never can we forget our Junior Class project of "unloading" fruitcakes. Through the persistence of the Class Executives, the Student Council representatives, and all the members of our class, we were able to efficiently complete this project in only four weeks. The Honor Society inducted 13 members from our class. They were: Pat Newett, Shirley Carreiro, John Medeiros, Joanne Robitaille, Barry Fisher, Sandra Robinson, Charlene Barnett, Peter Harriman, Robert Braley, Dana Pierce, Elizabeth Andrews, Jean Wyss, and Susan Torres.

As Spring approached, we became more active. Our prom was held on April 26 and was "An Enchanted Evening" for all. The Larch Avenue Auditorium was artistically decorated with a South Seas atmosphere, highlighted by the throne of our lovely queen, Halldis Berg.

On June 7, we, the Class of 1969 officially took over the responsibilities of Seniors, as Tom Wojcik accepted the symbolic mantle from Jeff Silva, President of the Class of 1968, and Susan Furtado played the Junior solo. As we stood and watched our graduating friends pass by, we knew that our time was approaching. The year ended on a light note when the last day of school was designated as a "Bermuda Day," sponsored by our Junior Class. The proceeds went to the Charles C. Entwistle Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Our Senior year was bursting with activities. In September, Neli Pryslicki, an Australian exchange student, was warmly welcomed by our class. To lead us through this final year, we chose Susan Torres, President; Tom Wojcik, Vice-President; Jean Wyss, Secretary; and Bill Rapp, Treasurer. The members of the Senior Executive Board were: Susan Almeida, Tom Daigle, Tom Darwin, Barry Fisher, and Susan Gardella. To boost the Class treasury, we sold cans of chocolates.

In those final few months we spent together, we felt all the joy of working, playing, and being together as a class. We can never forget the patience of both Miss Trafton and Mr. Paquin in putting on our Senior Play, "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch," and the time spent by our dedicated yearbook staff to publish the 1969 HUTTLESTONIAN. We shall cherish the memories of our Senior prom which was held on June 6 at the Holiday Inn, and was the last dance we attended as classmates. The Solemn Vesper Services, held on June 8, aided in commencing the lives which lay before us. The Senior Banquet was held on June 9 at the Holiday Inn.

June 11 was one of the most meaningful days of our lives, for we entered the auditorium as a class of high school seniors, and we left as graduates filled with tears of mixed emotions. We were all sorry to leave Fairhaven High School, for never again will this building belong to us, although we shall belong to FHS. Fairhaven High School is now a wonderful part of us: of our futures, our memories, and of our hearts.

1969 Class Will

We, the Class of 1969, being of reasonably sound mind and body, and in full control of our faculties, do hereby declare this our last will and testament. We therefore designate Mr. Vincent Bonczek, custodian, our sole executor.

Foreign Exchange Student

Neli Pryslicki

Neli Pryslicki, this year's exchange student from Australia, is residing with Elizabeth Maynard. Since her arrival, Fairhavenites have been encouraged by her friendly attitude toward all.

As a member of the Huttlestonian Staff, and an enthusiastic spectator at sport events, Neli has displayed an attitude constructive toward world peace.

The entire student body and faculty at Fairhaven High sincerely hope that Neli's stay with us has been one that will bring her many warm memories.

Senior Play

Our Senior play was presented on March 14 and 15 at Hastings Junior High. The play entitled "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch," was a hilarious western farce. It was directed by Mr. Pierre Paquin and produced by Miss Susan Trafton. The cast, who worked so hard on this production, consisted of: Robert Braley as the Guitarist—Narrator, Thomas Darwin, as Sneaky Fitch, Christine Hayward, as Maroon, Cheryl Rose as Mrs. Blackwood, and Gayle Whittle as Mrs. Vale, Peter Harriman as the Reverend Blackwood, and Coleman Blodgett as Doc Burch. Christopher Blackburn played the part of Sheriff Jack, with Mark Carter as Rackham, and Joseph Simpkin as Mervyn Vale. Darrell Hamer, David Mitchell, and Timothy Westgate played the part of cowboys in the production. Prompter was Ruth Chavier.

"You move
and you'll ruin
the scene."

"Mister Dillon ..."

"That's the twelfth time you've missed your cue."

"Girls, girls, there's enough of me for both of you!"

"Oh Christine! Stop it!"

So much for that comedy

It's hard to laugh after that lunch!

"Go to your room, Peanuts."

Daigle rides again!

"Da-a-a, I dunno!"

Report to my office immediately!

Anyone who takes this course can get into the Honor Society!

This wasn't posed; it's always this crowded.

Charge!

Class presidents should always look innocent!

"But who listens to a dumby?"

Nya, Nya, I'm not going to smile!

Alright you guys; we're going to do this my way!

And merrily we sing "Cheer All Cheer for Our Dear High School."

You wouldn't believe what we do in physics.

Our storage halls of knowledge are

With looks like these who needs Ultra-Bright?

This school floors me!

"If you take a filter tip and put it on the end . . ."

empty, right about now!

"What radio station have you got, Gail?"

But John, I don't want to do it YOUR way!"

SURE Ruth and I will pose for you!?

Rub a dub dub two men in a tub?

"An I dwink tree glasses of milk a day!"

"So Chicken-Licken,
Goosey-Lucy, Coc-
ky-Locky, Ducky-
Lucky, and Henny-
Penny ..."

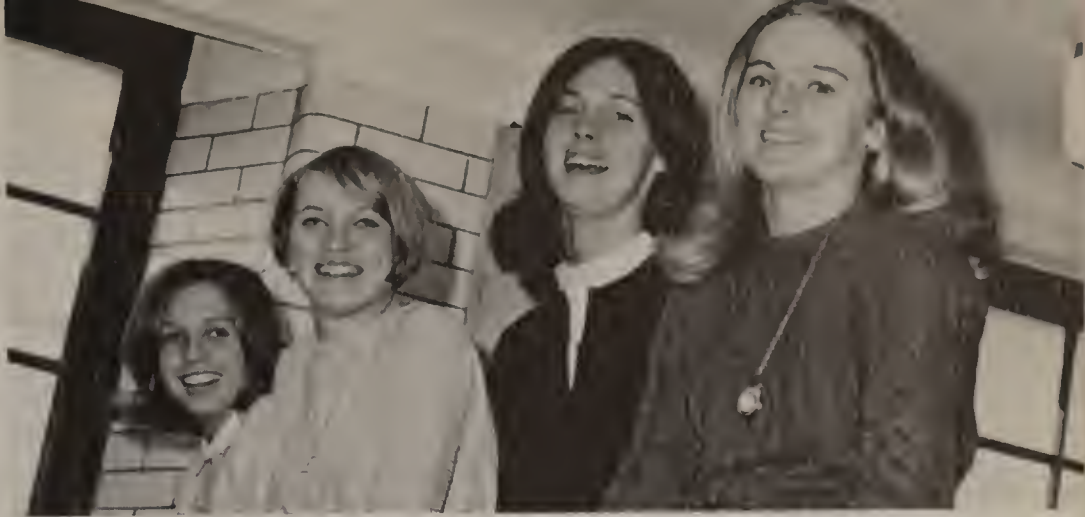

"Mr. Howard ... Really!"

Oh look, we're on candid camera!

"It's so nithe ta be here."

After session in the boy's locker room?

"Velly interesting!"

"Are those girls in our class?"

Police brutality?
